endorsements

"In my 19 years at Sprint, I have never seen anyone tell the company's story with the degree of passion, excitement and conviction that Mario delivers. No one. And I have never seen excitement ignited in the minds of our customers, until Mario. These qualities played an instrumental role in transforming the Sprint brand and closing out new multi-million contractual agreements that others said could never be done."

— R. Mosely, Client Account Director

Mario is leading the social selling revolution within PGI. He is such an expert in this area and is showing us all how to become experts here too. His energy is infectious and is really making his mark in PGI. Even though Mario and I work on different continents in different teams he is always available for help and advice. He is definitely one of those to watch within PGI and I for one look forward to learning from Mario this year."

— Head of Sales at SouthWestern Business Process Services Ltd.
